DOCKYARD MATIES, PORTSMOUTH MAPS & CORSETS
A CELEBRATION OF RAY RILEY’S LIFE & WORK
Menuhin Room, Portsmouth Central Library, Saturday 28 March 2020

10.00 - 10.20 Registration. Tea/Coffee

Morning Chair: Dr Hugh Mason

10.20 - 11.30 Session 1
10.20 - 10.40 Tim Allison Appreciation of Ray Riley’s life
10.40 - 11.00 Alan Burnett & Mike Bateman Notes in the Field
11.00 - 11.20 David Burtenshaw Ray Riley’s Sense of Place
11.20 - 11.30 Panel Questions

5 minute comfort break

11.35 - 12.50 Session 2
11.35 - 11.55 Celia Clark Geography of Defence: How it developed into a discipline
11.55 - 12.15 Pam Moore Hampshire Industrial Archaeology - Ray’s contribution
12.15 - 12.35 Peter Keat Railways of Gosport
12.35 - 12.50 Panel Questions

12.50 - 1.35 Lunch & Tea/Coffee

Afternoon

1.35 - 3.15 Session 3 Chair: Dr Mike Bateman
1.35 - 1.55 James Thomas Portsmouth and its Dutch Connections 1650–1800
1.55 - 2.15 Philip MacDougall Portsmouth Dockyard and the Birth of the Russian Navy
2.15 - 2.35 Ann Coats Portsmouth Dockyard: Gateway to the Empire
2.35 - 3.05 Jonathan Coad Learning from the Industrial Revolution: the impact at Portsmouth and its sister bases 1790 - c.1830
3.05 - 3.15 Panel Questions

3.15 - 3.35 Tea/Coffee

3.35 - 5.05 Session 4 Chair: Prof Alan Burnett
3.35 - 3.55 Dominic Fontana Early Mapping of Portsmouth
3.55 - 4.15 Sue Pike T. E. Owen and Southsea
4.15 - 4.35 Sarah Quail Women’s Suffrage and the Corset Industry
4.35 - 4.55 John Stedman The Portsmouth townscape
4.55 - 5.05 Panel Questions

END