

Brunel: History, Conservation & Legacy

Programme

|       |       |   |
|-------|-------|---|
| 9.30  | 10.00 | Registration & tea/coffee   |
| 10.00 | 10.05 | Housekeeping  |
| 10.05 | 10.30 | Introduction: Tim Bryan (Director, Brunel Institute)Brunel In Print: his biographical and bibliographical legacy               |
|       |       | Part One – Brunel and Historical Research  |
| 10.30 | 11.00 | Stephen Jones: (Institute of Civil Engineers)Docks &amp; Coal, Coal &amp; Docks: The Brunels in South Wales                    |
| 11.00 | 11.30 | James Boyd (Head of Research, Brunel Institute)Brunel's Networks   |
| 11.30 | 12.00 | Rose TeanbyThe Stop-frame photography of the Great Eastern Yard  |
| 12.00 | 12.15 | Panel Questions   |
| 12.15 | 1.30  | Lunch and displays/posters from National Brunel Network members   |
|       |       | Part Two – Conserving Brunel   |
| 1.30  | 2.00  | Nicola Grahamslaw (Ship's Conservation Engineer, SS Great Britain Trust)The SS Great Britain                                   |
| 2.00  | 2.30  | Trish Johnson (Bridgemaster Clifton Suspension Bridge Trust)The Clifton Suspension Bridge                                      |
| 2.30  | 3.00  | Simon Gyde,, (Programme Manager, Network Rail)Brunel's Temple Meads  |
| 3.00  | 3.15  | Panel Questions   |
| 3.15  | 3.30  | Tea   |
|       |       | Part Three: Contemporary Engineering   |
| 3.30  | 4.00  | John Parkin (University of the West of England)Civil Engineering Today: simply carrying on 'boldly imagining grand novelties'? |
| 4.00  | 4.30  | Christian Wolmar: Crossrail: Worth the Wait?   |
| 4.30  | 5.00  | Questions and close   |